

We cannot have giant broadcasting companies like Sinclair defying the rules and regulations concerning the materials they broadcast and using them for political purposes. This could greatly malign a presidential candidate 2 weeks before a presidential election.

This type of violation of FCC regulations must be stopped beforehand.

It does not serve the public interest and presents a great threat to our coveted democracy.

Sincerely,
Ron Morgan